DESCRIPTION

Department of Computer Science and Engineering(AI&ML) has organized INNAUGURATION OF MACHINE LEARNING CLUB on 21ST September 2022 . The main motto of this event is to start a club that includes various areas like Computer vision , Natural Language Processing and Internet of Things.

Student coordinators took an initiation of starting club activity and prepared a complete plan for club proceedings.

The event started with a short video prepared by students ,followed by paper presentations by the students. Students presented the importance of the area of interest.

This followed the prayer song and addressing by Principal sir and HOD's of various departments. Website created by students was launched by our principal in this occasion.

After the website launch , students from various departments where asked to speak about the club activities and various areas of their interests.
